CHINA AWAKING
SAYS MR. THWING

REMARKABLE WORK BEING DONE
TO EDUCATE YOUTH OF CHINA
ALONG WESTERN LINES.

Rev. E. W. Thwing returned Tuesday by the Doric from China and Japan whither he went February 21. His primary object in going was to secure additional Christian teachers for the work among the Chinese on the plantations throughout the islands, and in connection with the work of the Chinese church on Fort Street, and Mills Institute. He secured five qualified Chinese teachers, one of them a woman. One of these workers has a family and in all twelve persons will come to the islands.

Before these Chinese could leave China, passports had to be secured, and a charge of $96 is made by the Chinese government for each passport. Mr. Thwing sought to secure a remission on this charge and he succeeded after a very interesting and agreeable experience. He wrote a letter to Tsien the Viceroy of the two Kwong provinces, requesting an interview, setting out briefly the mission that brought him to China. The Viceroy courteously replied appointing 10 o'clock the next morning for an interview. At that time the Viceroy was waiting to receive Mr. Thwing and his party, and during the interview tea and cakes were served. Mr. Thwing explained the workings of the schools here, the large number of Chinese in attendance at both the public and private schools, and the object of securing additional teachers.

The Viceroy was very much interested in the subject, and before the interview concluded promised that the passports would be issued without any charge, and this was done.

Mr. Thwing says there is a great movement of progress and reform going on throughout China. Its influence is felt on the schools maintained by the Chinese themselves. One of the most striking features of the change going on is in the school books now used in the Chinese schools. Instead of, as formerly, teaching the great classics by rote, the school books used begin with simple matter suited to children, well written and well illustrated. These school books are modeled very largely on the Japanese.

In Canton the Chinese authorities established a lectureship to which all the schools were invited to send their pupils, and to send them in uniform, there being a great tendency among the schools in China now to adopt a uniform for their pupils. The subjects of the lectures were such as "The Best Methods of Instructing Youth," "The Best Methods of Teaching Western," was a hearty recognition of the value of what western civilization could contribute to China. Mr. Thwing himself was invited to deliver a lecture in this course and did so.

At Ningpo he was present at the general gathering of the Christian Endeavor of China. All but two of the provinces were represented and the spectacle was presented of addresses by Chinese to Chinese interpreted by foreigners, so different are the dialects of the different provinces.

CARTER VS. BROWN

fense ought to have been long since forgotten and forgiven. Yet he declared that if his name would detract rather than add to the strength of the ticket presented, he would, in the interests of the party, withdraw. He did not insist that he would run, even if it did mean ruin.

From the foregoing you will see that I believe the Republicans who oppose those candidates whose records are such that they are not worthy of the honor shown them, or who have been tried and found wanting, are doing the party a service, which may not now be recognized, but which in the end will benefit it.

I believe Brown's nomination is weak from a purely political point of view. At the last county election, he was nominated by the party at a time when he had the full political support and backing of the party. His opponent, John Wiles, took the field at a late day in the campaign, and almost succeeded in beating Brown; and there are those who claim (with perhaps some ground), that one precinct was late in its returns in order to count Brown in. If such a thing was done, no greater blunder could be made by any political party.

Certainly the voters must have a short memory and a remarkable change of heart to want to place Brown and those who are supporting him in charge of the police department. I do not believe the Hawaiians will support him; certainly they will not, if they know what is to their own best interests. Another important political lesson is, that those who desire county government to be a success must recognize that no greater error could be committed than to launch it by the election of one to the position of Sheriff who has repeatedly and consistently refused to work in harmony with the Attorney-General's Department. If, however, they are willing to sacrifice the harmony and confidence necessary to successful county government, simply for spite or to show their dissatisfaction with some step or action of mine, they are, of course, at liberty to do so.

To sum up: The Republican party has made a mistake in two of its nominees, and like some individuals, it hates to acknowledge it. Every member of it who thinks for himself at all must admit this. Of course, they can with some excuse or other try to justify it. There are those who want always to be on the winning side. Some fear party discipline, and say that their influence in the future may be injured. There are others, however, who intend to save at least their self-respect. Very sincerely yours,

G. R. CARTER.
